Regulator: The Financial Supervisory Authority

Created: 13.09.2022

You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

What is this product?

Type: This is a turbo type structured product.

Objectives: This product allows you to benefit from the upside evolution of the underlying and does not pay interest. The price of the product at maturity will depend on the performance of the underlying. Over the lifetime of the product, the positive or negative developments of the underlying are amplified by the leverage effect of the product. Also, the product may expire early if a knockout event occurs. As the underlying (Gold Futures) is quoted in a currency other than the currency of the product, the currency conversion is based on the relevant exchange rate. The multiplier of the underlying relative to the issued certificates is 25, meaning that an investment in 25 certificates is required to equal the exposure of a unit investment in the underlying asset.

When the barrier is reached, the product is suspended from trading, to be redeemed at the residual value set by the issuer. The barrier level can only be reached when the official market of the underlying is open. The maximum loss of the investor is equal to all the initial invested value.

Underlying asset: Gold Futures

Barrier level: 1550

Issue date: 13.09.2022

Maturity: Open end

Multiplier: 25

Intended retail investor: This product is intended for short term and very short term investors with high risk tolerance. Turbo certificates are optimal for investors who acquire the necessary knowledge and want to obtain high returns in the short term with the risk of losing up to 100% of the invested value.

What happens if SSIF BRK FINANCIAL GROUP SA is unable to pay out?

If SSIF BRK Financial Group is unable to make the payments due, you are not covered by any investor compensation scheme. To protect you, BRK Financial Group applies segregation of funds procedure. However, in the worst case scenario, a total loss of your invested capital is possible, so holders need to know the risk of the Issuer going bankrupt or insolvent with the securities.

What are the costs?

Costs over time

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get.

The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs. The costs displayed below represent the costs associated with this product. There may be other costs that you will pay to the person who sells or advises you on this product. These persons should provide you with information about these costs and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Investment: 10 000 EUR	1 day (recommended holding period)
One-off costs	72.29 EUR
Impact on return (RIY)	0.72%

This table shows the costs at the end of the recommended holding period. The displayed amounts are for a 10 000 EUR investment. These amounts are partly based on past data and may change in the future.

The impact on yield per year (RIY) is not annualized, which means that it is not comparable to the impact on yield (RIY) presented in other key information documents.

The tax legislation of the home member state of the individual investor may have an impact on the actual return.

Composition of costs

One-off costs	Entry costs	0.36%	The impact of the costs already included in the price.
	Exit costs	0.36%
